LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated January 5th, 1949.

E. K. DEBECK,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(h) To draw, make, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments:

(i) To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company:

(j) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, rights, and liabilities of any company or person carrying on or authorized to or intended to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or owning or being entitled to any property which it is considered desirable for this Company to acquire and to hold and deal with the shares, stocks, or securities of such Company:

(k) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(l) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(m) To guarantee the payment of money or the carrying-out of any contract or obligation, but nothing herein shall entitle the Company to carry on the business of guarantee insurance:

(n) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, and to enter into contracts or arrangements of all kinds with owners, builders, contractors, tenants, purchasers, and others:

(o) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular, for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(p) To enter into any arrangements with any government or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(g) To pay the expense of and incidental to the foundation and incorporation of the Company, and to remunerate any promotor or director or any other person, firm, or corporation for services rendered in or about the foundation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business, or the placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company:

(r) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(s) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration as from time to time may be determined:

(t) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(u) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid in any part of the world, and either as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person, firm, or company as agent for the Company:

(v) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(w) It is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause, except where used in reference to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons whether incorporated or not incorporated and wherever domiciled, and also that the objects specified in each paragraph of the clause shall be deemed independent objects of this Company, and except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph that the Company may exercise all or any of the powers therein contained: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or empower the Company to transact any business or do anything whereby it may be brought within the scope of the "Trust Companies Act."

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

CHARLES HAROLD CHAYTOR PAYNE, DECEASED.

NOTICE is hereby given that all persons having claims against the estate of Charles Harold Chaytor Payne, late of the City of Vancouver, B.C., who died on the 17th of October, 1949, are required, on or before the 21st of December, 1949, to deliver or send by pre-paid letter full particulars of their claims, duly verified, to the executor of the will of the said deceased, Mr. Gordon Farrell, at my office, Room 614, Pacific Building, 744 Hastings Street West, Vancouver, B.C.

And take notice that after the last-mentioned date the said executor will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased among the persons entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which he shall then have notice.

Dated 15th November, 1949.

3331-no17

G. BRUCE DUNCAN,
Solicitor for the Executor.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR.

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

MALE AND FEMALE MINIMUM WAGE ORDER No. 24 (1949).

MERCANTILE INDUSTRY.

PURSUANT to the provisions of the "Male Minimum Wage Act" and the "Female Minimum Wage Act," the Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:—

1. That for the purpose of this Order the following expressions shall have the following meanings:— Interpretation.

"Mercantile industry" means the work carried on in establishments operated for the purpose of wholesale and (or) retail trade:

"Class A employee" means an employee whose working-week consists of 39 hours or more:

"Class B employee" means an employee whose working-week consists of less than 39 hours:

"Learner" means, only, an employee of any age for whose employment a permit in writing has been issued by the Board who becomes employed in the mercantile industry at a time when he has had less than 6 months' actual experience as an employee in that industry.

2. That this Order shall apply to every employer and every employee in the mercantile industry, except employees covered by another Order of the Board specifically defining their work. Application of order.

3. That the minimum wage for employees in the mercantile industry shall be as provided for such employees in clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), and (f) of this section and sections 4 and 5 of this Order. Minimum wage.

(a) Class A employees: $18 per week.

(b) Class B employees: 47c. per hour, with a minimum wage in any one day of 4 hours' pay at the employee's regular rate, unless, by written permission, the Board varies this provision with respect to the daily guarantee.

(c) Employees of any age employed as learners, for whose employment permits in writing have been issued by the Board:— Permit rates for learners.

Learners, Class A employees:—

$12 per week during his first 2 months' employment:

$14 per week during his second 2 months' employment:

$16 per week during his third 2 months' employment:

Thereafter $18 per week as provided by clause (a) of this section.

Learners, Class B employees:—

32c. per hour during his first 2 months' employment:

37c. per hour during his second 2 months' employment:

42c. per hour during his third 2 months' employment:

Thereafter 47c. per hour as provided by clause (b) of this section, with a minimum wage in any one day of 4 hours' pay at the employee's regular rate.

The rates fixed by clause (c) of this section shall apply only:—

(i) To learners for whose employment permits in writing have been issued by the Board: Application of learners' rates.

(ii) For the period of time covered by the permits. In the absence of such permits, the full minimum wage rates as fixed by clause (a) or (b) of this section shall apply.

(d) Bicycle-riders and foot-messengers employed exclusively on delivery: 35c. per hour. Bicycle-riders and foot-messengers.

(e) That in cases where a bicycle is provided by the employee, all reasonable costs to the said employee in connection therewith, while the bicycle is actually in use on his employer's behalf, shall be in addition to the minimum wages fixed herein.

(f) Employees classified under section 7 of the "Male Minimum Wage Act" and section 6 of the "Female Minimum Wage Act" in respect of whom permits are issued by the Board: The wage or rate of pay prescribed in the permit.

4. All employees: Time and one-half of the employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight in the day and forty-four in the week. Permits shall be obtained from the Board to work such overtime. Overtime.

(a) This clause with respect to overtime rate of pay shall not apply to:— Exceptions.

(i) Employees working under an arrangement with respect to hours of work established pursuant to the provisions of section 5 or section 11 (3) or section 11 (4) of the "Hours of Work Act" until the employee has completed the hours so established:

(ii) Persons who are exempt from the provisions of section 3 of the "Hours of Work Act" pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the said Act.

(b) This clause with respect to overtime rate of pay may be varied by the Board to meet the conditions that may apply when:— Board may vary overtime provisions.

(i) Any part of the mercantile industry is exempted from the operation of the "Hours of Work Act" pursuant to the provisions of section 12 of the said Act; or

(ii) A regulation is made by the Board with respect to the mercantile industry pursuant to the provisions of section 11 (2) of the said Act.

Daily guarantee. 5. An employee reporting for work on the call of an employer, except bicycle-riders and foot-messengers employed exclusively on delivery: The employee's regular rate of pay for the entire period spent at the place of work in response to the call, with a minimum of 2 hours' pay at the employee's regular rate if the employee does not commence work. If, in response to a call, an employee commences work, section 3 of this Order shall govern with respect to the daily guarantee.

Payment of wages. 6. That every employer shall, at least as often as semi-monthly, pay to each of his employees all wages and salary earned by the employee up to a day not more than 8 days prior to the date of payment.

Thirty-two-hour rest period. 7. (1) That every employee shall be given a rest period of 32 consecutive hours weekly, of which he shall be duly notified by his employer.

Provision to vary rest period. (2) That in exceptional cases where it is recognized that the provisions of subsection (1) of this section are unsuitable, and when the employer and employees concerned make application in writing that a different arrangement regarding a rest period in respect of such employer and employees be approved by the Board, the Board may approve of such arrangement, and thereupon the arrangement so approved shall be applicable to the said employer and employees in lieu of subsection (1) hereof.

Order to be posted. 8. That every employer shall post and keep posted in a conspicuous place in his establishment, so that all employees affected thereby may have ready access to and see the same:—

Shifts to be posted. (a) A copy of this Order:

Records to be kept. (b) A schedule setting out the daily shifts and intervals free from duty of each of his employees.

Records to be produced. 9. (1) That every employer shall keep in his establishment a true and correct record in the English language of the wages paid to and the hours worked each day by each of his employees, together with a register in the English language of the names, ages, occupations, and residential addresses of all of his employees.

Order effective January 1st, 1950. (2) That every employer shall, on demand of the Board or any person authorized in writing by the Board or by the Chairman of the Board, produce for inspection all records kept by him relating to the wages, hours of labour, or conditions of labour and employment of any or all of his employees.

10. That this Order, made by the Board at Vancouver, B.C., on the 4th day of November, 1949, shall take effect on the 1st day of January, 1950.

11. That Orders No 24 (1946), No. 24A (1947), No. 59, and No. 59A of the Board, establishing a minimum wage in the mercantile industry, dated the 11th day of July, 1946, the 1st day of May, 1947, the 12th day of October, 1938, and the 14th day of June, 1939, respectively, are rescinded.

12. That General Interim Minimum Wage Order (1946), made on the 25th day of June, 1946, effective from the 1st day of July, 1946, shall not apply to employers and employees in the mercantile industry after the 31st day of December, 1949.
